

BTEC Professional Award (Level 4) in Debriefing Emergencies

The BTEC in Debriefing Emergencies is a nationally recognised qualification that demonstrates you have achieved a certain level of skill and competence. BTECs offer a realistic and accessible option if you want your performance and skills recognised.

The BTEC Professional Award in Debriefing Emergencies (Level 4) covers the knowledge, understanding and skills for the professional.

What will I gain?

Once you have completed this qualification you will:

1. Understand the requirements of debriefing emergencies
2. Understand records and outcomes in debriefing emergencies
3. Be able to manage debriefs of emergencies

Who is it for?

This qualification is aimed at people who conduct debriefing of emergencies in order to coherently and comprehensively achieve the UK resilience objectives successfully. There are no formal entry requirements.

How is it taught?

The qualification has 40 guided learning hours with an element of distance learning study. Learners will attend a two day taught programme within the 40 guided learning hours.

How is it assessed?

This qualification addresses the relevant knowledge, understanding and skills required for debriefing emergencies, enabling organisations to identify lessons learned. Learners will know and understand stakeholder roles and responsibilities and the essential communication requirements in debriefing. They will realise the importance of records, recording protocols and information as well as establishing outcomes and actions. Learners will conduct and manage debriefings with appropriate facilitation. Assessment is through the successful completion of a practical assignment and an evidence portfolio.

This course is endorsed by the Emergency Planning Society.
